Charting the LifeCourse Showcase

The National Community of Practice for Supporting Families is hosting a LifeCourse Showcase on:

May 17-18, 2017
Kansas City, MO

The event includes break-out sessions highlighting concrete examples of how the Charting the LifeCourse framework and tools are being used across the country by families, self-advocates, family organizations, schools, support coordinators, direct support professionals, and organizational leaders.

Who should attend: families, self-advocates, educators, support professionals, leaders, and anyone who helps plan with or supports individuals with a developmental disability.
